ASSIGNEE'S SALE.

IN pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by Deed of Assignment nade by David R. Flenniken on the 5th of December, 1885, and recorded in Book A.K., page 474, I will offer for sale on the FIRST MONDAY IN JANUARY nex., before the Court House door in

All that piece, parcel or tract of land, TWENTY-SIX ACRES more or less, lying, being and situate in the town of Winnsboro, in the County of Fairfield and State of South Carolina, and bounded by lots formerly owned by Mrs. James W. Law on the south, by the public read leading to Kincaid's Bridge on the north, and on the east by the Presbyterian Church and Garden street (excepting the lot known as the "Episcopal Parsonage"), and on the west by lands of the estate of James B. McCants.

The above-described tract of land has been laid out in thirty-six (36) suitable building lots, most of which contain onehalf acre; and a plat thereof has been made, which will be open for inspection at the law office of Col. Jas. H. Rion; and said lots will be sold separately according to said plat. With this land there will be sold so much north of the house and lot; so that there will be offered for sale four full-sized building lots at and near the corner of Garden and Liberty streets. TERMS OF SALE: One-third of the purchase-money to be paid in cash, for the balance a credit of the 1st November, 1886, will please preone and two years, payable in two equal pare to meet said notes, as full payment
